Community Living

Staying in the comfort and security of your own home and your local community for as long as possible is an option many cherish. Our community living services, which are available throughout the Gold Coast, help make this a reality. Whether it's lending a hand with day-to-day chores, organising visits to or from health professionals, or simply sharing a cup of tea and an enjoyable chat, we are here for you. We are here to make life easier for you and your family.

Should the time come when you need additional care, we would be pleased to welcome you to our St Vincent's Care Services Arundel residential living community (subject to availability and care requirements).
