- Professional hotel services, including full catering, laundry and cleaning

- Flexibility to choose your own GP
- Access to visiting specialist allied health professionals, including physiotherapists.

Community Living

Our community living services, which are available throughout Brisbane, provide valuable assistance within your own home to help you maintain your lifestyle and independence.

Whether it's lending a hand with day-to-day chores, organising visits to or from health professionals, or simply sharing a cup of tea and an enjoyable chat, we are here for you. We are here to make life easier for you and your family.

Independent Living

Our Bardon independent living community (locally known as Magdalene Court) offers a comfortable, maintenance-free retirement lifestyle within a welcoming and relaxing suburban setting.

You will enjoy fully self-contained, one- or two-bedroom private accommodation, with the comfort and security of on-site services. All of our residences feature modern finishes, air-conditioning and a 24-hour emergency call system with pendants.

You can also take advantage of our extensive shared facilities and activities, as well as our community living services. Then, if the time comes when you need additional care, you will be given priority access to our co-located residential living accommodation (subject to availability and care requirements).
